> * CROSBY'S KIDS

How Willie felt when he had the Measles-

"I felt kinda lost for a spell after I sold the old place and came down to live with my niece," admitted the re-tired farmer. "I missed the familiar 10 60 tisks, and there weren't enough new 20.00 ones to keep me busy. The familiar sounds, too, were absent, and at first I couldn't get used to the new ones; the young tady on the left tinkling the plane, the folks on the right running their talking machine, the feller across the street practicing his clarinet, and so forth. They bothered me. But back porch and filing a saw to quiet hime-by I took to going out on the my nerves. And it always done so; no so after a good spell of fling the noises of the neighborhood didn't pester me at ail."-Kansas City Star.

He Looked Musical.

An officer of the reserve was tired 10.00 after a hard day's work, and thought he would like a cocktall, which he ordered. Then be bethought himself of no so the breach of discipline involved in 7,000 70.00 serving a drink to a man in uniform.

Pretty soon the darky returned with 20.60 the cocktail neatly "dolled up" in a 20.00 cup surrounded by cracked lee, as orange juice is served. The officer looked sternly at the waiter and asked him if he did not know better than to 10 no serve a drink to an officer in uniform. "Is you an officer, sah?" said the darky, innocence cosing from every thought you was one of dem Sousa's band."

GREAT TRUTH SIMPLY TOLD

Warning Here to Those Who Neglect to Set Down Their Pricele. Discoveries.

A noted author in the Safevpost "The commonest sign of fatigue is found in feeling of wearl-

There are times when we are almost led into believing that this is true. Equivocat and ambiguous as the statement may seem, at the first reading, it becomes clearer when rend over four or five times. In fact, we don't know when the proposition has been stated with more charity, after one musters the language in which it is

Have you not often rend things and sald to yourself: "How often I have thought that very thing. Why did I not put it down in imperishable

It is so with this. Doubiless, in your humble way you have often thought that your weariness was a sign of fatigue. At these times you thought a living truth, but did you write and tell some magazine of your priceless discovery? No You aflowed somebody to come along, perhopes years after, and do it.

The moral is that when you think a great theoght, put it down on paper at once. Even if you do put it away somewhere and forget it, posterity miny find it.

Now, munt times in our career we have had feelings of weariness. Some of our friends have been subscuided enough to attribute it to laziness-asawful word, particularly among friends. But, when we were weary, it was not highest that nifed us. It was fatigue.

And we never knew the truth until we read the manualne article men-tioned. We have been standered for years by a wrong id-a .- Exchange.

HIGH HONOR FOR SMALL GIRL

Face of Ten-Year-Old Has Appeared on Millions of Coins of the United States.

The government of the United States in 1835 made an offer of $1,000 for the most acceptable design to be placed upon the new cent coin soon to be tssued. Some Indian chiefs traveled from the northwest to Washington to visit the Great Father and then journeyed to Philadelphia to see the mint, whose chief engraver was James Barton Longacre, who invited them to

The engraver's daughter, Sarah, aged 10, greatly enjoyed the visit of her father's guests and during the evening, to please her, one of the chief's took off his feathered between and war bonnet and placed it on her head. In the company was an artist who me mediately sketched her and handed the pleture to her father. Mr. Longacte, knowing of the competition for a like ness to go upon the eest proberted. under the instruction of the lawr, re-solved to contend for the prize offered by the government. To his delight the atheints accepted it, and the face of his daughter appeared upon the coin, which was circulated about the nation for nearly a century. There were more than a hundred competitions The cent bearing the face of Sarah than any other American coin.

How England Grows.

A great deal of interest is taken in England in the question of const. protection. The ocean assailing the diffs gradually tears them away, but the the band by building our long beaches of samt and shingle which arrest the waves before they can attack the cliffs. An effort is undring to prevent, or better regulate, the removal of this marerial for construction and condbuilding because in many places its removal has permitted the sea freely to exert its power of erosion.

The ordinace survey has ascertained that in the last half century England has lost 6,640 acres by sea eroslon and gained 48,000 acres through reclaiming land the existence of which is mainty due to caterint brought down by the rivers.

Growth of the Cities.

A Cleveland editor once said that Cincinnati's chief business was "park and politics," observes Girard in the Philadelphia Press.

You have been told in advertisements a million times that a certain beer "made Milwaukee famous." Everybody knows that Washlegton,

D. C. has one big industry-holding down government jobs. The new census figures from these ettles, all above 400,000, are significant. Pork population increased only 10 per cent in a decade, while heer population expanded 22 per cent. Both look small compared with the growth in government job population of 32
